Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 184, the subject matter of this application may be filed in a foreign country for the purpose of filing a patent application without a license any time after the expiration of 6 months from filing date unless the application becomes the subject of a secrecy order.

1. The "Confederate" government and its agents, 15 months from the outbreak of rebellion, have "not only delayed the publication of the Declaration of Independence, but have refused to publish the Declaration itself" and would no longer "depend on the Declaration as an authority from the States concerned to the Congress." The question of whether the Declaration is a public act is a public question and therefore should be published in the name of the United States and its people." "The Declaration of Independence is a public act and therefore should be published in the name of the United States and its people." "The Declaration of Independence is a public act and therefore should be published in the name of the United States and its people."
